

Transilwrap Company Acquires Clear Focus Imaging

Transilwrap Company, Inc., a value-added manufacturer, converter and distributor of specialty film products, has acquired Clear Focus Imaging, the leading manufacturer and distributor of One Way Vision™ perforated films used to produce see-through window graphics.

Franklin Park, IL (PRWEB) March 16, 2015

Transilwrap Company, Inc., a value-added manufacturer, converter and distributor of specialty film products, has acquired Clear Focus Imaging, Inc.

Clear Focus is the premier manufacturer and supplier of One Way Vision™ films designed for indoor and outdoor advertising. The Company utilizes patented technologies to create printable films engineered to create dramatic advertisements on vehicles, store fronts, skyscrapers, and other point-of-purchase window applications. Clear Focus serves customers in both North America and Europe, and operates a sales, manufacturing, converting and distribution site in Santa Rosa, California.

“This acquisition expands and strengthens Transilwrap’s value-added manufacturing capabilities to support growth in new market segments. Clear Focus’ innovative technologies will allow both companies to offer customers an even broader line of product solutions and services further adding value for our combined customers.” said Andy Brewer, Transilwrap’s President and CEO.

“This will be a very strong and exciting partnership and we look forward to the growth opportunities that this acquisition brings,” said Debbie Ross, President of Clear Focus.

“Transilwrap’s broad portfolio of manufacturing capabilities and expansive converting and distribution network will allow Clear Focus to grow our leadership position in the Display Advertising market segment.”

In November 2013, The Jordan Company, in partnership with the existing management team, acquired Transilwrap as a platform to build a leading global specialty films company. Clear Focus represents the second acquisition in 15 months under Jordan’s ownership as it expands Transilwrap’s global end-market reach in targeted growth markets and increases its value-added manufacturing capabilities. All Clear Focus business operations and employees will continue to be managed separately by the current leadership team as part of Transilwrap’s Graphic Solutions Business Unit.
